WEALTHY UNMARRIED MOTHERS ARE "BABY FARM" VICTIMS IS CHARGE

State's Attorney's Office Begins War on Baby Farming —Four Arrests Made—Investigate Alleged Oak Park Haven for Rich Girls

The state's attorney's office is going after the "baby farms" in Cook county. The work has been placed in charge of Asst. State's Attorney Eugene C. O'Reilly.

According to information now in the hands of O'Reilly there are several of the places outside the city limits where the keepers and doctors feel safe from raids by the Chicago police.

It has been brought to light that a farm exists in Oak Park to which come the wealthy unmarried mothers to deliver their children. O'Reilly will take action against this place.

Two more girl-mothers were brought into the Court of Domestic Relations this morning. One of them was Mrs. Jessie Rudeen, the mother of "Jacob," the baby whose death in the "house of mystery" at 6108 Blackstone avenue led to the discovery of a baby farm at that address. She has since married Jacob's father.

The other defendant today was Miss Mary Mortell, the daughter of wealthy Aurora parents. She was ar-
